Viet Talks Resuming

PARIS (AP) — Henry A. Kissinger resumed his secret peace negotiations with Hanoi's Le Duc Tho in Paris today amid indications that their governments are determined to seek a quick settlement.

The chief obstacle appeared to be the South Vietnamese government's insistent demand for withdrawal of all North Vietnamese troops from South Vietnam. But Kissinger gave no indication how strongly he would insist on this point.

President Nixon's chief foreign policy adviser said on his arrival Sunday that if Tho and his associate Xuan Thuy showed "the same spirit of understanding and flexibility which characterized our meetings in October, a rapid settlement of the war is probable."

Kissinger and Tho drafted an agreement last month calling for an on-the-spot ceasefire throughout South Vietnam, followed by withdrawal of all American forces, release of all prisoners of war and elections in South Vietnam under international supervision.

North Vietnam set an Oct. 31 deadline for signing the agreement, but the United States refused to be rushed. Kissinger told a news conference in Washington on Oct. 26 some details still needed clarification but added:

"We have given a commitment that a text will be agreed to at the next session will be the final text and that no new changes will be proposed."

Computer Program Patent Ruled Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today ruled out patents for programming digital computers.

"If these programs are to be patentable, considerable problems are raised which only committees of Congress can manage," Justice William O. Douglas said in the 6-0 decision.

In other action, the court refused to hear a plea from New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison that he be allowed to prosecute Clay L. Shaw for perjury in connection with Garrison's claim that Shaw lied when he said he did not know Lee Harvey Oswald. Oswald is identified as the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

The computer ruling, which will have a broad impact on the still-developing computer "software" field, supports the government and rejects the claims of two Bell Telephone Laboratories' employees who wanted a patent for programming a general-purpose digital computer.

The patent seekers, Gary R. Benson and Arthur C. Tabbott, have developed a method of programming a general-purpose digital computer to convert signals from binary-coded decimal forms into pure-binary form. The U.S. Patent Office said this was not more than a set of mental steps for carrying out mathematical procedures.

But the Court of Customs and Patent

Weather Hampers Center Collection

Officials at the Children's Therapy Center said Monday that many collectors for the center's annual bond drive were hampered by inclement weather and were not able to complete their collection routes.

Honorary chairman of the drive, Mrs. Everett White, said many collectors will be canvassing their neighborhoods for several days until collections are complete.

A drive total of about $8,000 was reported by center officials Monday. The funds collected during the canvass will be used to finance operating expenses at the center next year.

Girls Survive Ordeal in Swamp

ORMOND BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Huddled together in a "fort" made of palm fronds, five frightened little girls sang Christmas carols through the night to keep their spirits up while 1,500 volunteers searched for them in the swampy woods near their home.

The 17-hour ordeal for the five, ranging in age from 2 to 11, ended Sunday morning when a helicopter spotted them standing on a muddy creek bank and directed ground crews to them.

"Are mom and dad looking for us?" asked 11-year-old Tonya Morgan.

"The whole country is looking for you," replied the first scrubber to reach the girls. Dirty, wet, scratched and bruised from frequent falls — but otherwise unharmed — the girls were immediately reunited with their parents.

"Mother came running down the road to us with her arms spread wide open," said Tonya, who shared the ordeal with her three younger sisters: Elisha, 10, Carla, 7, and Angela, 2, and schoolmate Karen Llewellyn, 11.

"We got lost," Tonya said. "We followed those stupid dogs."

The girls went for a walk with Karen's two dogs, a mongrel named Poochie and a German shepherd named Lady, after the girls and Mrs. Michael Morgan surprised Karen's mother, Colin Llewellyn, with a birthday party Saturday.

"Poochie saw a raccoon and chased it," chubby brown-haired Karen said. "We ran after him. Pretty soon we didn't know where we were. We've only lived out here a couple weeks and I don't know the place."

Sheriff Ed Duff said the girls probably were never much more than a mile from home. But the dense woods along the north bank of the Tomoka River a few miles outside of Daytona Beach made search operations difficult.

"I wasn't afraid until it got dark," Tonya said. "Elis and I are Girl Scouts but we never camped out in the woods. We tried to huddle together to keep warm."

"We sang Christmas carols and other songs to keep Angela from crying," Karen added.

"It was my 33rd birthday," Mrs. Llewellyn said after the girls were found. "It was the worst I ever had. I aged 10 years."

Sometimes a snowman isn't . . .

The one event that seems to bring out the artistic creativity of young and old alike is a good heavy snowfall such as the one experienced in Sedalia over the weekend. The snow barely had time to accumulate before it was being shaped into snow forts, animals, and people. Evidence of this sudden surge in creativity may be found on every block in the city. Snoopy and his doghouse was built by Mrs. Donald Hall, 1401 South Prospect, Sedalia. Mrs. Hall's daughter, Donna, 10, contributed Snoopy's bowl. The elephant was created by Terry VanNatta and his brother-in-law, Ronnie Heinaman, both of Dresden. The towering snowman was built by Mr. and Mrs. Clay Campbell, 1008 South Missouri, for their little daughter Clarissa who had to stay indoors during the snow because of illness. Dino the dinosaur was constructed by persons unknown in a field next to Bothwell Hospital.

Rural Man Found Dead After Storm

An 88-year-old rural Smithson man was found dead in a snow-covered field Sunday afternoon about a quarter mile from his farm, four miles northeast of Sedalia, near Route O, Pettis County Sheriff Emmett Fairfax said Monday.

The dead man was identified as John Wesley Cochran. Fairfax said he apparently suffered a heart seizure while walking back to his farmhouse Saturday after checking game traps.

Fairfax said he received a phone call from Cochran's son late Saturday night saying that the elder Cochran was missing. Cochran reportedly returned from checking his traps about noon as a matter of routine. Due to the heavy snow, however, Fairfax could not organize a search party until Sunday morning.

The sheriff said Cochran's body was found at 12:55 p.m. Sunday after three hours of searching. About 40 volunteers participated in the search, Fairfax added.

Mr. Cochran was born in Schuyler County, Mo., Sept. 21, 1884, the son of the late Sylvester and Elizabeth Fawcett Cochran.

He married Elizabeth Lily Louise Tisch, in 1904. She preceded him in death in 1924. Surviving are two sons, Bill Cochran, 44, and

Record Turnout

Overwhelming Brandt Victory

BONN (AP) — Willy Brandt, bolstered by his greatest personal election triumph, had an overwhelming mandate today to pursue the tension-easing policies that won him the Nobel Peace Prize.

A record number of West German voters gave his Socialist-Liberal coalition 54.3 per cent of the 37.4 million ballots cast Sunday against 44.8 per cent for the conservative Christian Democrats. This meant 272 seats for Brandt in the 496-member Bundestag, the lower house of Parliament, a solid majority of 48.

Brandt immediately served notice he plans an unprecedented journey to East Berlin before Christmas to sign his government's friendship treaty with the Communist East German regime.

"I recognize the results of the vote as a mandate to carry forth... the work we started with success in the last three years," Brandt said in a restrained victory statement. "The majority confirmed we are on the right course."

The magnitude of Brandt's personal victory, which rivaled that achieved by Konrad Adenauer in 1957, exceeded the coalition's expectations. Some stunned politicians spoke of a "landslide" that would change West Germany's political landscape for years to come.

Running with a slogan of "Willy Brandt Must Remain Chancellor," his Social Democratic party alone received 45.9 per cent of the vote and replaced the Christian Democrats party as the largest party in the Bundestag for the first time since the West German republic was formed in 1949. The Social Democrats wound up with 230 Bundestag seats, a gain of six over the 1969 election.

Foreign Minister Walter Scheel's small but pivotal Free Democratic Party gained in stature from its alliance with Brandt's Socialists, receiving a surprising 8.4 per cent of the vote and 42 seats. Three years ago, the liberals barely cleared the 5 per cent hurdle needed to remain in the Bundestag.

For the Christian Democrats, who had ruled West Germany for 20 years from 1949 to 1969, it was their worst election setback.

Defectors from Brandt's forces had swelled the opposition's ranks to 248 by last September, forcing Brandt to dissolve the deadlocked Parliament and call new elections a year ahead of schedule.

Britons Celebrate Royal Anniversary

LONDON (AP) — Crowds thronged London today to cheer Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip on their 25th wedding anniversary, but the newspapers carried more embarrassing headlines about their daughter Princess Anne.

The story leaked out that the 22-year-old princess went fox hunting eight days ago in Yorkshire. The League Against Cruel Sports said she was "setting a deplorable example."

The Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, of which both the Queen and Queen Mother Elizabeth are patrons, said it was "implacably opposed to fox hunting; it doesn't matter if Princess Anne or anyone else takes part."

"Perhaps the Queen will be displeased," said a spokesman at Buckingham Palace.

Anne is an international class horsewoman, but the palace spokesman said this was the first time she had taken part in a hunt.

John Snowden, the master of the hunt with whom Anne rode, said, "There was no kill — so no one need worry about that."

The princess got some undesirable publicity last week with the disclosure that she had been stopped twice in her sports car for doing nearly 90 miles an hour, the speed limit being 70. Police said she might be prosecuted.

Anne seemed unconcerned today about the uproar as she followed her parents into Westminster Abbey for the anniversary thanksgiving service.

A fanfare of trumpets greeted the royal family at the Abbey — where the 46-year-old queen and Prince Philip, 51, were married in 1947. Special guests at the service were 100 other couples who were married on the same day.

Philip strode beside his wife down the aisle of the Abbey. They smiled and chatted.

They were followed by heir to the throne by Prince Charles. Princess Anne walked beside her brother.

The queen was obviously touched by the 45-minute ceremony and the memories it aroused. Near the end, when her husband and family joined in "God Save the Queen," she looked ahead misty-eyed and swallowed hard.

Definition of 'Hamburger' Is Given

By GAYNOR MADDOX

The word "hamburger" can cover a lot of deception. For example, too much fat in the meat is the common and major complaint. The legal federal maximum for fat is 30 per cent. Many butchers are selling hamburger with far more fat. Why? Because they make a lot of extra profit that way. Fat is far cheaper than red meat. My advice to purchasers is to inquire, when buying, what the fat content is. If the butcher cannot supply that information, or satisfy your curiosity about what goes into your ground meat, try another shop.

There are no uniform standards for hamburger, otherwise known as chopped beef. But many leading meat dealers are trying to make their products reasonably consistent in fat content. In general they have not yet been too successful.

Here is a quick breakdown of what to expect in types of chopped meat:

Regular Ground Beef: Ground beef made from lean meat and fat as cut from a whole side of beef. For hamburger patties, casseroles, meat loaves and sauces.

Ground Chuck: Only chuck is used.

Ground Round: This is deluxe "hamburger" with a higher price tag to match its Drop batter into 12 buttered muffin-pan cups (each 1-3rd cup capacity) filling about 2-3rd full. Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean and tops are lightly browned—20 to 25 minutes. Loosen edges and remove; serve at once with butter.

Polly's Pointers

Peeved Reader Scores Design Issue

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with garment manufacturers who persist in designing ready-to-wear with only front interest. Instead of having pleats in just the front of a skirt why not have them all around. This also holds true with design and pattern and I venture to say, as such ladies' clothing is observed going as coming. This is true of the inexpensive as well as the expensive garments by big-name dress designers. — MRS. S. T. M.

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY — I color my own hair and my problem is that I have had a cataract operation and cannot see without my glasses, therefore I have to wear them while using the color. I tint my hair and also the rims of my glasses. These are very expensive frames so I need help on removing the color from the frames and advice on how to manage future coloring jobs. — ANNE

DEAR POLLY — I am answering Helen who is upset over the binding on her blankets splitting long before the blankets show wear. For years I have been taking a piece of an old soft sheet at least 12 inches wide and of a length that will cover the width of the blanket. Such a piece could be even wider than 12 inches if one desired. I baste this over the binding on any new quilt or blanket. When it gets soiled, the band is removed, washed and stitched back in place. My bindings never wear out or look soiled. I hope Helen will try this. — MRS. O. M.

DEAR POLLY — For ailing house plants such as ivy or philodendron, trim off any dead leaves, gently loosen the soil around the plants with a fork, water well and feed with plant food. Cover plants, pot and all with a plastic bag and tie bag at the bottom with a string to make it airtight. Place this in an airy place with light but no direct sunlight. At the end of two weeks remove the bag cover and discover a plant restored to good health. — NELL letter I had decided to give up on a grape ivy plant and just throw it out. Luckily it was rescued in the nick of time and I followed her directions to the letter except my plant was left in the bag for 18 days. The bag served as a little greenhouse. There were beads of moisture inside the bag and even water standing in the pot's saucer when a thriving plant, full of new shoots, was removed. Thanks so much, Nell. — POLLY

DEAR GIRLS — This is the greatest. The day I read Nell's

DEAR POLLY — I found a way to save myself some money. When my floor waxer cloth wore out I cut a piece of carpet to fit the waxer and fastened it on with several rubber bands. The carpet piece was new and with a rough finish so the waxer works as good as a new one. — NANCY

Fashion Lifts Its Focus

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Focusing attention on the legs was a favorite pastime of the 1960s and it spilled over to the short-lived hot pants flash of 1971. So while a great many women are still happy with the dressing-in-pants syndrome, designers are now lifting their talents to the top of the silhouette.

Nat Hirsch, designer for Junior Gallery, is intent on emphasis at the yoke, shoulders and collar but doesn't think it should be achieved with an excess of width.

Ladies don't want to look like football players," he said. "But they do want to look different from the way they looked last year."

While many designers have made a big play for dolman sleeves, hoping to revive a look that was popular in the 1950s, Hirsch hesitates to concentrate too much on dolmans as they're not the easiest fashion to wear or manipulate.

Instead, he makes the action happen at the top by adding ruffles on coats which is about one of the loveliest touches

Your response hinted that you didn't believe it. Well, you're both wrong. Whether one speaks nicely or not is irrelevant, but SPEAKING does help.

Humans breathe out carbon dioxide, a chemical which plants breathe in. So, by speaking to the plants we supply them with one of their basic needs. In other words, the plant would do just as well whether you recite a poem by Yeats or one of Hitler's speeches.

I live in fear of being found out. I might lose my job, my family, my friends, and in some states, my freedom.

I am not a child molester, a rapist or a sex maniac. I am a person who is different and therefore, in some states, I am considered a criminal. I don't ask the world to embrace me, but I hope the day comes when I and others like me will no longer be persecuted for being a member of a minority group. Do you, Ann Landers, have the courage to print this? — One In Madison

Two Men Charged In Magistrate Court

Two Sedalia men were formally charged with second-degree burglary and stealing in Pettis County Magistrate Court Monday.

John Edward Taylor, 19, and Alva Eugene Sypolt, 23, both of 2205 South Ohio, will have their preliminary hearing Nov. 30. Magistrate Judge Frank Armstrong set the bond at $3,500 each.

The two were arrested by Sedalia police in the 1800 block of South Limit at 3:05 a.m. Saturday. The two are charged with breaking into the MFA Oil Co., 3200 South Limit, and stealing six cartons of cigarettes.

Police reported a glass pane in the rear door of the service station was broken to gain entry.

Both are in the Pettis County jail.

Routine Council Session Expected

After holding two special meetings the past week regarding negotiations with city firemen, Mayor Jerry Jones and the City Council may possibly get home early tonight from the regularly scheduled council meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Council Chambers.

"Nothing I know of," was the response of Mayor Jones when asked about possible discussion topics for tonight's meeting. He did say, however, that he felt the two extra meetings last week "were necessary to take some of the burden off the regular meetings... we couldn't possibly discuss all we had to discuss at the regular meetings... it would last too long."

City Counselor Bob Fritz was unavailable for comment. City Clerk Ralph Dedrick indicated there would be the usual number of liquor license renewal applications.

Two Are Injured In City Collision

Two men were taken to Bothwell Hospital after a two-car accident at 12:49 p.m. Sunday at Ninth and Montgomery.

Examined at the hospital and released to private physicians were the drivers of the cars: Cleo R. Casdorph, 25, of 1619 South Lamine; and Robert James Cook, 33, Hughesville. Both men complained of neck injuries, a hospital spokesman said.

Police said the accident occurred when a 1966 Chevrolet driven north on Montgomery by Casdorph collided with a 1965 Dodge driven wet on Ninth by Cook.

Cook was charged with careless and imprudent driving. His court date was set for next Monday.

Five Are Injured In Crash

Despite snow-slick roads in Pettis County this weekend, only one collision, injuring five persons, was recorded according to Highway Patrol records.

The area's lone reported accident, a two-car crash, occurred at 11:15 p.m. Saturday, on U.S. 65 two and one-half miles north of Route HH. Involved in the accident was a southbound car driven by Charles Richard Paxton, 39, Sugar Creek, Mo., and a pickup truck driven north by Larry C. Hibbs, 24, Buckner, Mo.

Paxton suffered facial lacerations and possible internal injuries. Injured passengers in his car were his wife, Earlene, 36, facial lacerations; his daughter, Mikki, 15, head lacerations; and his son, Michael, 8, lacerations of the forehead.

Hibbs suffered lacerations of the face.

The injured were all taken to Bothwell Hospital. Mrs. Paxton, Mikki, and Michael were all treated in the emergency room and released. Mr. Paxton and Hibbs were admitted and were both reported in "satisfactory" condition Monday.

Highway Patrol spokesman said the accident apparently occurred when the two vehicles slid into each other on the slick highway. Authorities indicated it was impossible to determine which car had slid into the path of the other.

Second-term Discussions Continuing

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — President Nixon, launching his second week at Camp David, scheduled a day-long series of conferences today with six top administration officials to map second-term plans.

As the President stepped up reorganization operations at his Maryland mountaintop retreat, Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler joined his boss for the forthcoming week. Ziegler said he was canceling his daily White House briefings for the duration of his stay at Camp David.

Nixon, accompanied by his wife and daughters Julie and Tricia and son-in-law Edward Cox, returned to Camp David Sunday after giving last-minute instructions to peace negotiator Henry A. Kissinger before the latter's departure for Paris.

Summoned to Camp David for conferences today were United Nations Ambassador George Bush, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Elliot L. Richardson, Cost of Living Council Director Donald Rumsfeld, CIA Director Richard Helms, Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz and special presidential consultant Leonard Garment.

Weekend Incidents Reported to Police

Two thefts were reported to Sedalia police during the weekend.

Five Injured

Four of the five persons in this car were injured Saturday night in a two-car collision on U.S. 65 just north of Sedalia. The driver of the other vehicle, a pickup truck, was also injured when the two vehicles slid into each other on the snow-slick highway. In spite of the heavy snow over the weekend, this was the area's only recorded injury accident.

John H. Bothwell: man of many parts

November 20 passes in Sedalia with scarcely a ripple today, but it was exactly 123 years ago that one of the city's leading benefactors, John H. Bothwell, was born in Clay County, Illinois.

John Homer Bothwell left his mark in Sedalia and Pettis County in several important ways. Bothwell Hospital and Hotel bear his name, as well they should since it was $150,000 of his seed money that enabled both to be built.

Both of these vitally needed institutions were constructed during a time when Sedalia was not in the best of economic health, but they became a reality because of John Bothwell's love for the city and his desire to see it prosper and better serve its citizens.

His role in the building of Bothwell School is perhaps lesser known, but equally as important in its own way. Built with a considerable contribution out of his own pocket in 1916, the school was a marvel of forward-looking educational thinking in its day, enough so to justify a full-page feature story in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of Nov. 5, 1916.

In contrast to the traditional one-room, poorly-equipped country school, Bothwell School featured central heat, running water, electric lights and a separate teacher's office. Instead of fixed, hard-back seats and desks, Mr. Bothwell insisted on separate tables that could be moved about to suit particular needs — an early version of today's flexible learning resource centers.

And if you think "rural development" is a new concept, listen to John Bothwell expound on this subject 56 years ago:

"It has long been my belief that...the movement most important to the future of our country would be to increase the opportunities for education and for remunerative employment and for comfortable and satisfactory life in the country...it has been clear that only by having better schools, better roads and more comfortable and attractive homes in the country, will it be possible to induce the best elements of rural citizenship to remain and to continue the country life, which is so important to the American people."

Lawyer, businessman, civic leader, legislator (four terms in the Missouri House) and philanthropist, John H. Bothwell was a man of many parts, and Sedalia was lucky to have had him.

Injustice in Social Security tax set-up

By CARLTON SMITH

NEA Financial Writer

Have you sharpened your pencil and figured what the new Social Security legislation is going to cost you?

No question but what the enlarged benefits help to remedy some of the inequities of the program, and provide badly needed aid to people living at poverty levels. Viewed simply in terms of human need, it doesn't go far enough. Much more remains to be done.

Quite aside from that is the question of how such programs should be paid for, and how the benefits should be distributed. Responsible critics of the system are now suggesting that it's time to take a look at our whole concept of how it works, and why.

Your Social Security payments this year are set at 5.2 per cent of the first $9,000 of income. Thus the maximum deduction is $468. It's the same for everyone who makes $9,000 or more — whether it's $9,001 or $90,000.

Next year the formula changes. The "wage base" rises from $9,000 to $10,800. The rate was earlier scheduled to rise to 5.5 per cent, but the recently passed legislation, to fund the added cost, gave the rate an additional boost to 5.85 per cent. Thus the maximum contribution rises from $468 to $631.80.

The following year you'll pay 5.85 per cent of a yet higher wage base, $12,000, for a maximum contribution of $702.

After that, your "contributions" — or tax — will increase by a cost-of-living formula until 1978, when the rate rises to 6.05 per cent.

It's thought possible, in Washington, that we'll see a wage base of $20,000 within 10 or 12 years — meaning a tax of more than $1,800 on both the wage earner and his employer.

Beginning a year from this January, anyone earning $7,500 a year will pay $438.75 for Social Security. That's nearly 6 per cent of his total income. Someone earning $25,000 will pay $702, or 2.8 per cent of his total income. The man in the $50,000 bracket pays the same $702, or less than 1.5 per cent of his income. Above $70,000, the tax is only a fraction of a per cent.

That is what's known as a regressive tax. The burden is heavier for those less able to pay.

While few are fond of paying the income tax, we at least know that in theory — and, for the most part, in fact — the burden is shared according to ability to pay. That is the source of most of the federal government's revenues. Some critics of Social Security taxes therefore advocate paying the benefits out of the general revenues, to remedy the regressive burden of the present system.

Other critics are asking whether the whole concept of how benefits are handled out isn't a little strange. The average retired couple, after years of work and contributions to Social Security, today receives $270 a month. Everyone agrees that's not enough, but it's all the system can afford.

A man past 65 with income from investments of $50,000 a year probably receives $389 — the current maximum — for himself and his wife. He paid into Social Security all those years, and he's entitled to collect his benefits — under our system as now conceived. But our system is straining, and unable, to meet the minimal needs of retired workers living on less-than-poverty-level incomes.

Gives you something to think about when you see that larger bite Social Security begins taking out of the paycheck come January.

Government probes into private lives

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — For years, we have reported on the alarming trend toward government by investigation. The federal bureaucracy is crawling with investigators who, if they are to earn their salaries, must investigate someone. Today, this could be almost anyone who deals with the government or makes out a tax return.

It has become an all too frequent practice, in conflicts between private citizens and federal agencies, for the government to try to settle disputes by investigating the disputants. The power of investigation, which is supposed to be used for the good of the citizens, is often used instead to intimidate, coerce and strike back at persons who challenge the rulings or oppose the policies of government or makes out a tax return.

FOOD &amp; FIBER NEWS

Everyone wants a safe water supply for home use. Perhaps you or someone else has had a water sample tested and the results indicated it was unsafe for human consumption. You may have wondered just what this "unsafe" report meant. Hopefully, we can clear up some of the confusion on this point.

Water samples can be tested for several things. Usually the samples will be tested for one or more of the following: nitrates, bacteria, hardness, iron and possibly others. Most unsafe water samples will be contaminated with bacteria. Nitrates can also make the water unsafe. Other substances normally found in water may affect the taste, odor or usefulness of the water, but will not usually make it unsafe for consumption.

Bacterial tests are made to see if coliform bacteria are present in the sample. If more than four coliform bacteria are found per 1000 milliliters of water, it is reported to be "unsafe" for human consumption.

Coliforms are a group of organisms that are widely distributed in nature. They are most often found and associated with the intestinal tract of warm-blooded animals. They are abundant in wastes from warm-blooded animals.

Coliforms alone are generally not harmful to man. But their presence in a water supply is an indicator of pollution of a more serious nature. So it is assumed that if coliforms can enter the water supply, then a means of entry also exists for pathogenic (or disease-causing) organisms.

When a water supply becomes contaminated, you need to treat the entire system. Treatments applied in the well will go through the pump and piping system. After treatment, you should be able to detect a chlorine taste and odor in the water if a sufficient amount of chlorine has been used. The treatment should be applied so that little or no water is withdrawn for several hours if possible. Just before bedtime would likely be best. This allows a maximum of "contact time" between the chlorine and the contaminated water.

After your system has been treated, you may want to take another sample in a couple of weeks to see if you have eliminated the contamination.

Meeting

Pork producers of this area will meet at the REA in Sedalia at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday to hear LeRoy Rottman report three years of swine records from pork producers enrolled in the Missouri mail-in records, some from this area.

First Ecologist

Environmental pollution is not a new peril to man, because life everywhere has always been threatened by contamination, according to facts cited in a new booklet issued by the Potash Institute of North America.

The 40-page booklet, Facts From Our Environment, describes itself as "a small handful of informal questions and answers." It says the American farmer became the first ecologist of modern times about 40 years ago. He agreed with agricultural scientists that the land must be used to serve man, not abused nor coddled to destroy him. And the dream became a massive movement called soil conservation.

Tax Management

It's only about 45 days till the end of the year. Just as well completely ruin one of the rainy days real soon by doing some figuring on your income tax. The best way I can suggest to start is to bring your records up-to-date and make careful estimates for the expenses and income for the rest of the year.

Now then, get out last year's tax return as a guide and make out an estimate of taxable income for this year. Don't forget depreciation and capital gains. Look over your deductions and exemptions. Now figure the tax.

Start by double checking. Be sure no income was counted twice, or left out. Check all your expenses. Pay all your bills. Be sure you deduct cost on purchased livestock sold. Then start looking for additional, legitimate ways to lower taxable income. Don't overlook investment credit, or previous years with a net operating loss. Better check now. After Jan. 1 all you can do is pay.

To meet rising costs of farmland transfers, machinery purchases, and other outlays, farmers may lift outstanding debt seven per cent a year during the 1970's. Land prices are expected to climb nearly four per cent a year, based on projected rates of general price inflation and a decrease in farm numbers.

Machinery purchases are the other big expenditure.

Projected annual price increases are three per cent.

Expenditures for buildings and land improvements are projected at about the same as currently.

Summing all these items, farmers' total annual capital flow is expected up more than 50 per cent by 1980.

Farmers pay for these capital expenditures either out of their own pocket or by borrowing. If farmers use the same share of their income this decade as in the 1960's, out-of-pocket spending would account for about 60 per cent of the projected capital flow.

It's Too Wet

Right now there's no question about needing some dry weather. There is one thing I have noticed though, over a period of time. Even in unfavorable planting and harvesting seasons some managers always get done on time. And they don't do it all together with oversized equipment. They do tend to have a little more than adequate size. But more important probably is that they are always ready to work on a good working day. They seldom have breakdowns and never have to stop for unexpected trips after supplies or repairs.

You might find some use for some of this rainy weather time to be sure you can run efficiently when you do get some harvest weather. Do some planning for handling your crop. Get your preventive maintenance done. Plan to minimize harvest losses. Also, keep in mind what you have taken up in the crop. These are

Chess Rookie Will Be Back

By JOHN LUMPKIN
Associated Press Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—His dark eyes did not show sadness after losing four consecutive games to opponents sometimes 50 years his elder, and chess remains the most important pursuit in the budding life of little Oscar.

Indeed, 7-year-old Oscar Alejandro Mass of Juarez, Mexico, will be back for more chess tournament competition, possibly next month, his sponsor says.

"He's a little innocent in the traps," says Filiberto Terrazas, a lawyer and teacher who took an interest in Oscar's career in "el ajedrez" — Spanish for chess.

Oscar "can calculate very well. He needs experience," said Terrazas during the open tournament in which Oscar participated here in conjunction with an invitational match held for 16 international chess masters.

Grandmaster Bent Larsen of Denmark, a player in the invitational, called Oscar "brilliant" and predicted a great future for him. Terrazas said. Little Oscar and Larsen sparred for several moves after a lunch the two had together Sunday.

In one game during what was Oscar's first formal tournament he played a man in his 60s, fighting off the opponent for almost 40 moves before being checkmated. "I lost the attack," explained Oscar.

Oscar said he learned chess at 5 after watching one of his older brothers play. Now he beats his five brothers and his father, an engineer. His mother and sister don't play.

plan winter protection for the mums in the garden. The term "hardy chrysanthemum" has led many to feel that they are completely hardy.

now. After the soil has frozen, cover the mums with a loose mulch. Since mums produce small new shoots in the fall, care must be taken that these little shoots are not smothered by a tight mulch.

Materials such as evergreen branches, coarse hay, twigs shrubs, or corn stalks are suitable mulches. Do not use peat, leaves, sawdust, or straw, on top of mums. Varieties known to be tender should be dug up and overwintered in a coldframe.

When the Pilgrims celebrated the first Thanksgiving in 1621, they had never seen a chrysanthemum although the Chinese had been growing them for 2,000 years. Even when George Washington declared a day of Thanksgiving in 1789, chrysanthemums had just been introduced into France. It was almost another 100 years before chrysanthemums were brought to America.

Today they are our most popular fall flowering plant, but are extremely popular as potted plants throughout the year. At Thanksgiving they are particularly suited to decorations as pot plants and cut flowers, since they are available in gold, bronze, and maroon shades so popular for this season.

To get the longest life from a potted chrysanthemum, place it near a bright window and keep it moist at all times. Night temperatures around 60 to 65 degrees are ideal. A windowsill will usually have slightly cooler temperatures than in the rest of the room. If a windowsill location is not possible, move the plant to a cool room at night.

Most of the chrysanthemum varieties that are forced for potted plants do not make good outdoor plants. They flower too late in the fall, and, therefore, the flowers are killed by frost just as they develop. Some potted varieties are not reliably hardy.

Hardy outdoor chrysanthemums are one of the most spectacular garden plants available. They are extremely easy to grow and are well adapted to many conditions and soil types. They should be given full sun and well drained soil. Many people find them well suited to the south side of the house because they are less subject to damage from early fall frosts.

Biting off their roughest scheduled in the short, five-year history of the school, State Fair Community College heads to Neosho, Mo., Tuesday night seeking their second straight victory of the young basketball season.

"I thought we did a pretty good job in most areas," said State Fair Coach Bill Barton Saturday night after his Roadrunners had notched their first win of the campaign over Missouri Southern College's junior varsity, 78-62. "We made some mistakes, but that's only natural in the first game of the season. The kids (four of whom were starting their first JuCo games as freshmen) played well overall," he added.

The victory over MSC kept State Fair's opening-season victory string alive; they have now won every season opener.

"We are going to face a lot tougher situation at Crowder College," Barton hastened. "He (Bob Sneller the Crowder head coach) is one of the best recruiters in the region ... they'll be tougher than the one (MSC) we faced here tonight," the third-year SFCC mentor continued looking ahead to Tuesday's contest.

With the Roadrunners starting four new faces in their opener,

Snead, Tucker Combine For Late Giants' Win

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Given a needed break, the New York Giants cashed in Sunday to stop the St. Louis Cardinals 13-7 with their leading aerial combination in the National Football League.

Norm Snead, defying an icy light rain in near-freezing temperatures, twice whipped key passes to tight end Bob Tucker in the waning minutes of the National Conference East Division encounter.

The path to the goal line established by the two, running back Ron Johnson piled over the right side from the one to bring the Giants their victory.

New York's triumph, its sixth in eight games, boosted the Giants' record to 6-4 and clinched at least third place in the division.

St. Louis, 2-7-1 and tied for fourth, had taken a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter and grudgingly permitted only two Pete Gogolak field goals to protect a 7-6 edge in the fourth period.

But Cardinal plans went awry when, after advancing to the Giants' 41, Jim Bakken was sent in for a field goal try from the 48.

Placement holder Larry Wilson dropped the slickened ball nullifying Bakken's try, then arose and heaved a desperation pass downfield.

An ineligible receiver, tackle Dan Dierdorf, got his hands on the pass at about the 35, costing St. Louis not only possession of the ball but a 15-yard penalty putting New York at the Cards' 44.

Johnson bolted nine yards and Joe Orduno two for a first down at the 33 before a five-yard penalty and an eight-yard loss set the Giants back.

But Snead threaded the Cardinals' zone for a 22-yard pass to the 6-foot-3 Tucker, then sent Johnson over the right side on fourth down for a first down at the 21.

Johnson lost a yard at left end, but Snead returned to Tucker and delivered a 21-yard bullet carrying to the one and setting up the touchdown.

"It was hard to throw but not impossible," said the 33-year-old Snead in reference to his 13-for-24 passing despite poor conditions.

"We found the hole in their defense," Snead added. "They were playing three linemen, four linebackers and four defensive backs and we had Tucker go behind the linebackers and in front of the backs."

Miss Evert Will Stay With USLTA

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — "I'll still be only 18 this summer and that is too young to be playing entirely for money," tennis star Chris Evert said in announcing her decision this weekend to remain with the United States Lawn Tennis Association (USLTA).

The decision of the high school senior from Fort Lauderdale not to join the Women's International Tennis Federation (WITF) may mean even more money than the rich Virginia Slims tour of the WITF could offer her.

Walter Elcock, president of the USLTA, said he will offer a summer and winter tour for women netters with minimum prize money of $25,000 an event.

Chiefs Playoff Hopes Dim

The Kansas City Chiefs trailed the San Diego Chargers 27-17, had possession and a first down on the enemy's six-yard line.

Chiefs Coach Hank Stram was pacing the sidelines in his characteristic manner, a thin roll of paper, as usual, in one hand.

For a few fleeting seconds, a lot of things adding up to almost a miracle sifted through Stram's anxiety at that point.

"I thought we had a chance to win... if we got the TD," Stram recalled. "We needed to score and, hopefully, with an onsides kick and recovery, we would still have a chance to win.

"Somehow... some way."

Mike Livingston dropped back to pass, unloaded. Pete Barnes, a Chargers linebacker, lumbered in front of the ball and hauled it down.

The interception was one of four by the Chargers during the cold, overcast day, and that one just about dissipated Stram's hopes for an American Football Conference West Division playoff berth. The Chargers won 27-17.

The defeat dropped the Chiefs, 5-5, 1½ games behind the front running Oakland Raiders.

"It's going to be tough to get back in the playoffs now," Stram mumbled. "We had the opportunity to do it ourselves. Now we have to have help from somebody else to get in there."

Stram had said before the season started the Chiefs, who have been in many playoffs, had the potential to be Stram's best club ever.

The Chargers, with a puny 3-6 record, proved otherwise. They made a shambles of what was once one of pro football's most devastating defenses.

The Chargers poured 17 points across in the second quarter and led 24-7 at the half. Quarterback John Hadl was the chief executioner and running back Cid Edwards his first lieutenant.

Hadl hit on 17 of 28 passes for 216 yards and one touchdown, a 20-yard flip to Gary Garrison. He scored himself on a one-point conversion.

Don Leedy, S-C wrestling coach, said Monday that his entire 40-man squad would participate.

The wrestlers will be paired in accordance to weight and ability in the abbreviated matches. "We have so many on the team this year that it will be necessary to cut the periods to one minute, rather than the normal two," said Leedy Monday.

Leedy plans to introduce the wrestlers and explain the holds and techniques used on the high school level during the exhibition.

The Tigers open their regular-season schedule on Nov. 30 in Alma, Mo., against Santa Fe High School.

No admission will be charged for the Tuesday exhibitions.

Five Big 8 Teams Accept Bids

By ROBERT MOORE
Associated Press Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A record five Big Eight Conference football teams are headed for bowl classics, and two of them — Nebraska and Oklahoma — will square off Thursday in the league championship showdown. The others are Colorado, Missouri and Iowa State.

The five conference teams all accepted bowl invitations after Saturday's action.

The Nebraska-Oklahoma battle, expected to be much like the Thanksgiving Day brawl between the two clubs a year ago, will be played in the Cornhuskers' stadium in Lincoln, Neb.

Devaney was proud of his fifth-ranked Cornhuskers after they demolished the Wildcats in a lopsided game in which the Huskers' Johnny Rodgers contributed two touchdowns, one on a 52-yard first quarter punt return and the other on an eight-yard burst.

The Huskers, Devaney said afterwards, "played like a bunch of real fine farmers would perform at any job they had to do." After Nebraska was held to a 23-23 tie a week earlier by Iowa State, Devaney had said, "We played like a bunch of farmers at a picnic."

Coach Chuck Fairbanks of Oklahoma, disappointed over his team's victory over Kansas in which four different Sooners made touchdowns, says he hasn't really studied Nebraska yet "but I know they've got a great football team." Then he added:

"If we don't play a hell of a lot better than we did today, we're going to get embarrassed. We can play better, and we'll have to. You don't make the mistakes we did today against a team such as Nebraska and win."

The bright spot of the fourth-ranked Sooners' victory was Greg Pruitt, who gained 135 yards on 16 carries before a bruised ankle put him out of the game in the second period.

In other games Saturday, Missouri sneaked by Iowa State 6-5 and Colorado downed Air Force in a nonconference contest 38-7.

This will be the Big Eight's role in the bowls:

Orange Bowl at Miami, Fla.—Nebraska, 8-1, vs. Notre Dame, 8-1.

Sugar Bowl at New Orleans, La.—Oklahoma, 8-1, vs. Penn State, 9-1.

Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.—Colorado, 8-3, vs. Auburn, 8-1.

Fiesta Bowl at Phoenix, Ariz.—Missouri, 6-4, vs. Western Athletic Conference champion.

Liberty Bowl at Memphis, Tenn.—Iowa State, 5-3-1, vs. Georgia Tech, 6-3-1.

By Oswald &amp; James Jacoby

Oswald: "Four spades is a mighty good contract. In the actual play North managed to make 12 tricks after the deuce of spades lead; a spade return to West's ace and the play of a third spade by West. After that start, South had time to ruff one of dummy's clubs and eventually discard all his three hearts on the last two clubs and the fourth diamond."

Jim: "More inspired defense would have held South to five odd. The hand is given to show one of the modern bidding conventions. North's two-diamond bid is what is known as a 'reverse.' He has bid a second suit in such manner that if partner wants to return to his first suit he must go to the three level."

Oswald: "Way back in 1935 I first wrote about reverse bids and said that such bids should be strong. A reverse by responder was a one-round force; a reverse by opener was a very strong invitation to partner to bid again."

Jim: "Modern expert bidding has gone one step further. Any reverse is now treated as a one-round force."

Oswald: "Thus, when North bid two diamonds he wasn't worried about his partner dropping the bidding there. South was forced to rebid. Not that South wanted to. He had a very minimum response. Then, as mentioned earlier, once he rebid, North had a clear-cut four-spade call."

Voice Opinions on Drinking

By LOUIS HARRIS

The American people feel that alcoholism is just as serious in this country as smoking marijuana, with 64 per cent who agree "heavy drinking is a very serious problem," compared with 65 per cent who say the same about pot. Moreover, 41 per cent of the public reports that it "knows someone whose drinking interferes with performance on the job."

For the most part, Americans view alcoholism as a disease which should be treated medically rather than as a condition which threatens society and should be punished criminally:

✓ By 65-26 per cent, a sizable majority disagree that "people who are drunk in public but not causing trouble for anyone should be arrested."

✓ By 72-12 per cent, a majority also think that "those who drink on the job" should be helped rather than fined.

✓ By 52-25 per cent, a majority rejects the idea of "the police arresting drunks," and opts instead for having the police "take them to a hospital for treatment." A majority of all court cases in the country today are reported to involve some drinking-related episode.

The one major exception to the public's generally tolerant attitude toward people with a drinking problem is the area of drunken driving:

✓ A substantial 87 per cent of the public view drunken driving as a "very serious problem" in America today.

✓ By 79-11 per cent, a big majority feel that "the police and the courts should be tougher on drunken drivers than they are now."

Public attitudes toward heavy drinking are partly influenced by moral considerations, but also are heavily influenced by a high awareness of the potential dangers of drinking:

✓ A majority of 65 per cent agree with the statement that "alcoholism is basically a sign of moral weakness."

✓ By 54-37 per cent, people also feel "there is really no cure for alcoholism."

✓ By 55-38 per cent, most tend to believe that "if a person drinks too much, it's almost always because he is under too much pressure."

✓ By 56-34 per cent, a majority believe that "even a moderate amount of drinking is damaging to the body."

In October, a cross section of 1,590 households across the country, surveyed in person, was asked:

"Do you think heavy drinking of alcoholic beverages is a very serious problem in this country today, a moderately serious problem, not too serious, or not really a problem at all?"

"How about the use of marijuana — would you say this is a very serious problem in this country today, a moderately serious problem, not too serious, or not really a problem at all?"

HOW SERIOUS A PROBLEM?

	Heavy Drink-ing	Use of Mari-juana
% % Very serious	64	65
Moderately serious	27	19
Not too serious	7	9
Not a problem	1	4
Not sure	1	3

Federal government sources estimate that approximately nine million persons have a serious drinking problem, while an estimated 17 million have smoked marijuana. However, medical authorities are virtually unanimous that excessive drinking is distinctly harmful, while reports are still mixed and indeterminate about the deleterious effects of smoking marijuana.

The cross section was also asked:

"Some people say that those who drink on the job are sick and should be helped. Others say that sick problem drinkers put an unfair load onto other employees, and should be fired. Which way to you feel personally — should problem drinkers be helped or fired?"

HELP OR FIRE PROBLEM DRINKERS?

Total	Public	%
Should be helped	72
Should be fired	12
Not sure	16

Basically, the public wants to give heavy drinkers the benefit of the doubt and to offer an extending hand of help rather than to mete out punishment.

Drunken driving, however, is viewed in an entirely different light. The cross section was asked:

"Do you feel the police and the courts should be tougher on drunken drivers than they are now or not?"

GET TOUGHER WITH DRUNKEN DRIVERS?

Total	Public	%
Should get tougher	79
Should not	11
Not sure	10

The American people are willing to endure a certain amount of inconvenience and even annoyance from those who have problems with alcohol, and, indeed, show a fair amount of compassion for helping them, but they draw the line when heavy drinking creates danger on the highways.

St. Louis Is Center of Air Pollution Study

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Using the St. Louis metropolitan area as its specimen, environmental scientists from many parts of the nation are studying various aspects of air pollution.

After putting St. Louis under the microscope, the scientists hope to be able to determine just what one city's activities do ... not only to the immediate environment, but also to areas distant from the city.

And armed with that information, the environmentalists will apply new methods to air pollution in cities throughout the world.

Dr. James Lodge, chemist at the National Center for Atmospheric Research at Boulder, said in an interview that St. Louis was agreed upon by sci-

Ministers Plan

Protest Campaign

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — About 15 black ministers and 200 other black citizens have organized a campaign to protest what they describe as a conspiracy of white bankers and others to destroy Marion and Samuel Jordon, brothers who are organizers and officers of the Empire Mortgage and Investment Co., and the Empire Land Development Co.

The group elected the Rev. E.A. Freeman Sunday night to head a steering committee of ministers and other citizens aimed at organizing legal support for the Jordon Brothers, and to direct a boycott of the Tower State Bank.

The protest was prompted by the recent seizure of Empire Mortgage's funds and records by the Tower State Bank.

The bank has alleged the Empire firm has misappropriated certain loan accounts for improper purposes.

Post 16 Presented Citation

(Democrat-Capital Service)

CONCORDIA — Pettis County Post 16, American Legion, was among several posts in the district to receive the Annual Children and Youth Citation award presented at the Seventh District, Department of Missouri, meeting here Sunday. The award was given to Post 16 for its child welfare services to the community and the state during 1971-72.

Accepting the citation on behalf of Post 16, was Commander Howard R. Hillman, Route 1. The citation was presented for service performed during past-commander Joseph M. Fulk's administration within the post. Also present from the post at the district meeting were William W. Wood, Jr., 114 West 14th, first vice commander of Post 16; and Ruth Hillman, Route 1, president of the post Ladies' Auxiliary. Delegates from twelve Legion posts in the Seventh District were in attendance.

Business matters discussed at the meeting covered areas of future child welfare services, increased membership drive plans, and the relatively-new County Government and Missouri Cadet Patrol Academy youth programs.

Among special guests at the session were four Department of Missouri officials including Lloyd Ed Johnson, department adjutant; Ralph J. Henry, department service officer; Leroy White, department vice commander-at-large; and John A. Wright, department finance officer. Each officer made a report to the group concerning his particular area of administration.

Earlier Sunday, Mrs. Iris Black, 76, of St. Joseph, Mo., was killed when the car in which she was riding left Kansas highway 20 and overturned in Doniphan County.

Saturday night, a car-truck accident at a Lawrence intersection claimed the life of Solterio Lallas, 39, Beachwood, Ohio.

A head-on crash a half-mile east of Strong City on U.S. 50 Saturday night took the life of Mrs. Teresa Griffiths, 23, Neo-sho Rapids, Kan.

A Fort Worth, Tex., man, Terry Leon Norris, 26, was killed Saturday morning when his car crossed over the median of the Kansas Turnpike and struck a second vehicle head-on.

Earlier Saturday, a two-car crash south of Spring Hill on U.S. 169 took the lives of Richard D. Roberts, 24, Spring Hill, and Randy Joeckel, 18, Venice, Fla.

Another accident early Saturday killed 19-year-old Phil Bricker, Gorham, Kan. He died in a one-car mishap on a Russell County road west of Gorham.

Delays Recovery

FARMINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — A massive roof fall inside Consolidation Coal Co.'s No. 9 mine here has delayed recovery of 47 bodies still trapped in the shaft from explosions four years ago.

Bodies of only 31 of the 78 victims have been recovered to date.

Claims Truman Did Not Want Back Door Try

NEW YORK (AP) — Harry S. Truman tried to avoid his own nomination as vice president in 1944 because he knew President Franklin D. Roosevelt was in poor health and he did not want to enter the White House "through the back door," his daughter says.

In a forthcoming biography of her father, Margaret Truman Daniel writes that Truman dropped his resistance after Roosevelt told him by telephone that to refuse the nomination would be to "break up the Democratic party in the middle of a war."

"Well, if that is the situation, I'll have to say yes. But why the hell didn't he tell me in the first place?" Truman said after Roosevelt hung up. Mrs. Daniel recalls in excerpts of the book

Hoffa Assails Prisons

ST. LOUIS (AP)—No prison in the United States is operated properly, James Hoffa, former Teamster Union president, said Sunday night as he urged the 600 persons who heard his speech to support prison reform bills.

Hoffa, who was paroled a year ago after serving 58 months in a federal prison, spoke at the Jewish Community Centers Association in the St. Louis suburb of Creve Coeur.

He said there are six areas where prisons need to be improved. They are:

1. Classifying prisoners on the basis of their crimes and education

2. Reorganizing health care programs

3. Regular psychiatric evaluation and treatment

4. Granting the appeal of prisoner-abuse cases directly to federal courts

5. Governmental assistance to ex-convicts in finding a job or financing the former prisoners until they find work

6. Giving prisoners more contact with the outside world.

Hoffa was also critical of federally operated half-way houses and the attitudes of wardens and guards.

in the Nov. 24 issue of Life magazine.

Mrs. Daniel says in the book, "Harry S. Truman," that her father wrote of his reluctance to accept the nomination in a letter to his 10 days before the July Democratic convention.

"Yes," Truman wrote, "They are plotting against your dad. Every columnist prognosticator is trying to make him VP against his will."

"It is funny how some people would give a fortune to be as close as I am to it and I don't want it . . ."

"Hope I can dodge it. 1600 Pennsylvania is a nice address but I'd rather not move in through the back door — or any other door at 60."

She says Roosevelt decided to dump Vice President Henry A. Wallace after polls showed the Democrats leading Republican Thomas E. Dewey by only 51 to 49 per cent. While Truman back-pedaled, Wallace and former South Carolina Gov. James F. Byrnes fought for the nomination.

Meanwhile, Democratic National Chairman Robert Hannegan "summoned Dad to his hotel room and sat him down on the bed while he put through a call to President Roosevelt, who was not attending the convention," she writes.

Told that Truman had not yet agreed to accept the nomination, Roosevelt said, "Well, you tell him if he wants to break up the Democratic party in the middle of a war, that's his responsibility."

Using Airplanes On Tree Poachers

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Utah forest officials say they will use airplanes to watch for Christmas tree poachers in Utah and Nevada this year.

Cly Bishop, assistant Utah forester, said the aircraft will continue checks through Christmas Eve.

He said up to 10,000 Christmas trees, mostly pinon pines and three varieties of fir, were harvested illegally last year in Utah. It is a misdemeanor to dig up or chop down a Christmas tree without a special permit.

Hoffa was also critical of federally operated half-way houses and the attitudes of wardens and guards.

GRANTMASTER TIRE GUARANTEE

1. Tread Life Guarantee Against Road Hazards
We guarantee all Grantmaster tires against failures from all normal road hazards for the life of the tread with the exception of: ordinary nail punctures, fire, theft, front-end misalignment, under-inflation, over-inflation and running flat.

2. Tread Life Guarantee Against Defects
We guarantee the Grantmaster tires, against all defects of material and workmanship, for the life of the tread.

Basis of Adjustment: Should your Grantmaster tire require adjustment under Section 1 or 2 of the Guarantee, please return it to Grants and we will replace it by giving you a proportionate allowance for the unused tread, based on the current selling price, including Federal Excise Tax.

3. Guaranteed Against Tread Wear
The original tread is guaranteed not to wear out for the number of months designated. If tread wears out during this period, the tire should be returned to Grants and we will replace it, charging the current regular selling price plus Federal Excise Tax less the following percentage allowance toward the purchase of a new tire.

Tire Guarantee      Allowance
18-27 Months      10%
28-40 Months      25%

This guarantee covers tires in passenger car service only. Passenger car tires used in commercial service reduce the guarantee period by 50%.

VALUE:

Your money should buy the maximum quality at a minimum price. But my promise to you is that for value, nobody in town can or will offer you more value for your money than Kroger.

If for any reason you feel that any part of my promise is not being fulfilled to you, I want to hear from you directly. Simply ask your Kroger store manager for my private number and call me.

We're dedicated to the proposition that there's always something extra in store for you at Kroger, and I want to follow through personally on my promise to see that you get it.
